ORDER

Government have prescribed the condition for engaging teachers for enumeration work vide Government Order read above, There were certain requests from various organisations regarding sanctioning of Earned leave and treating the period as duty for the teachers engaged in such work. At present School Teachers are being deputed as enumerators to conduct Houselisting and Housing census operation and preparation of National Population Register 2011. Government have examined the matter in detail regarding eligibility for earned leave treating the period as duty to those teachers engaged in census duty and similar type of works and issue the following orders.

Teachers are eligible for proportionate Earned leave only for the period during which they are prevented from availing vacation at the rate provided in Rule 81, part I KSR and orders that earned leave should be sanctioned to those teachers who are engaged in such works during vacation time.

The period of absence from duty of a teacher appointed for Census or similar operations for such work will be treated as duty under Rule 12(7) Part I KSRs. Teachers deputed for similar work of census duty will also be eligible for Earned leave treating the periods duty as ordered above .

The above orders will be applicable for the teachers of Higher Secondary Education and Vocational Higher secondary Education also.
